

Privacy Notice for Staff

In accordance with Data Protection legislation, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Trust and its schools use any personal data that is held about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, hold, process and share personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage to work across our Trust. This Notice may be subject to change.

Who we are

Pontefract Academies Trust is a 'Data Controller' as defined by Article 4 (7) of General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). This means that we determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, your personal data is processed. We have a responsibility to you and your personal data and will only collect and use this in ways which are compliant with data protection legislation.

The Pontefract Academies Trust has appointed Veritau Ltd to be its Data Protection Officer (DPO). The role of the DPO is to ensure that the Pontefract Academies Trust is compliant with GDPR and to oversee data protection procedures. Veritau's contact details are:

Schools Data Protection Officer
Veritau Ltd
County Hall
Racecourse Lane
Northallerton
DL7 8AL

schoolsDPO@veritau.co.uk
01609 53 2526

Any correspondence with the DPO must include the name of our Trust and the name of the school within our Trust if relevant.

Why do we collect your personal data?

We use school workforce data to:

- Enable you to be paid via our third-party payroll provider
- Support pension payments and calculations
- Facilitate safer recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards our pupils/students
- Develop a comprehensive picture of our workforce and how it is deployed
- Inform our ongoing development of our recruitment and retention policies
- Inform financial audits of our Trust
- Respond to statutory data collection and reporting requirements such as school workforce census, gender pay gap
- Fulfil our duty of care towards our employees

Any personal data that we process about our workforce is done so in accordance with Article 6 and Article 9 of GDPR and include:

- To perform our contractual obligation to you or for us to take the necessary steps prior to entering into a contract with you
- To comply with legal obligations placed upon us
- To carry out a task in the public interest

Who do we obtain your information from?

Whilst most of the information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. To ensure that we comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

We may receive information regarding you from your previous employer, pension provider, DfE, HMRC, and other government agencies.

Who do we share your personal data with?

We routinely share school workforce information with:

- Department for Education (DfE) - We share personal data with the DfE on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links

- Prospective future employers, landlords, letting agents, or mortgage brokers where you have asked them to contact us to seek a reference.

We will share personal information with law enforcement or other authorities if required by law.

We have duties under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to disclose information we hold unless there is a very good reason to withhold it. Therefore, we may disclose your name and work email address publicly in response to a request if we are required to do so.

CCTV

Some of our schools use Closed Circuit Television (CCTV) cameras for the purposes of monitoring our premises and to support any pupil/student behavioural policies. There are visible signs showing that CCTV is in operation and images from this system are securely stored where only a limited number of authorised persons may have access to them. We may be required to disclose CCTV images to authorised third parties such as the police to assist with crime prevention or at the behest of a court order.

How long do we keep your personal data for?

Your information is stored in line with the Pontefract Academies Trust Records Management Policy and Procedures.

What rights do you have over your data?

Under GDPR you have the following rights in relation to the processing of your personal data:

- To be informed about how we process your personal data. This notice fulfils this obligation;
- To request access to your personal data that we hold and be provided with a copy of it. This is sometimes referred to as a 'Subject Access Request';
- To request that your personal data is amended if inaccurate or incomplete;

Privacy Notice for Staff

- To request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing;
- To request that the processing of your personal data is restricted; and
- To object to your personal data being processed.
