

23rd February 2023

Dear Parents,

Wakefield Music Hubalaboo – Tuesday 28th March 2023

Your child has been partaking in ukulele lessons as part of our Music offer at The Rookeries. Along with other Wakefield musicians we have been invited to attend the Wakefield Music Service Hubalaboo at Wakefield Theatre on Tuesday 28th March 2023.

This event is a time to showcase the wonderful music which is happening in the Wakefield area and is a real privilege that our children have been identified as a showcase school for their Ukulele performance.

The event will consist of an afternoon rehearsal at the theatre starting at approximately 2.30pm. The children will be transported to the theatre by coach with staff from the School. Following the rehearsal there will be time for tea. The children will require a packed lunch for this.

The evening performance is due to begin at 6.30pm. There will be tickets (ranging from £8-£12) for parents. These have not yet been released but will be offered as soon as they are to the parents of our Year 3 pupils performing)

The concert is due to finish around 9pm. For safety of our pupils, pupils will return via coach to The Rookeries where they will be picked up by their parent or carer outside of the school.

Children will be required to attend school as normal the morning of the 28th March. They will have lunch as normal and then will be collected from their classrooms in the afternoon to travel by coach to the venue.

We appreciate this is a long day for our young pupils and hope you are able to support in allowing your child to attend in order to perform as The Rookeries Ukulele group.

Please return the below permission before Friday 3rd March 2023 so we can finalise numbers.

Yours sincerely

Miss Marsh
